Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio

Graduates and guests led by Christine Shumway Strohl

*Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.*

President Kirwan looks forward to personally congratulating you and your graduate immediately following the ceremony in French Field House.

Gregory S. Lashutka

Doctor of Laws

Gregory S. Lashutka became Columbus' 46th mayor in January 1992, bringing a wide range of legal and administrative experience to the role of chief administrator of the nation's 15th largest city.

He received his bachelor's degree in history in 1967 from Ohio State, where he was co-captain of the Buckeye football team in 1965. He went on to play defensive end for the Buffalo Bills and served four years as a lieutenant in the United States Navy, including active duty in Vietnam in underwater explosive ordnance disposal. Following his military service, he graduated from Capital University Law School in 1974. He served as Judge Richard B. Metcalf's law clerk in the Probate Court of Franklin County and as U.S. Congressman Samuel Devine's legislative aide. He later became a partner in the law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, where he focused on municipal and sports law.

He was twice elected to four-year terms as Columbus City Attorney, serving from 1978 to 1985. As the city's chief legal officer, he supervised 42 attorneys in the criminal and civil divisions. The office carried a docket of 2,200 civil cases in federal and state courts and 127,000 criminal cases in state court. During his tenure, he streamlined the Prosecutor Division, making it more responsive to community needs.

Under his leadership as mayor, Columbus has become one of America's premier inland international cities. In 1994, the city hosted the United Nations World Summit on Trade Efficiency, at which officials from around the globe discussed ways to increase trade through electronic commerce. Through Mayor Lashutka's initiatives, such as the Inland Port project and Trade Point USA, central Ohio businesses can increase trade and expand their operations.

In 1993, he was named Municipal Leader of the Year by American City & County magazine. He was president of the National League of Cities in 1996, serving as a spokesman and representative for more than 3,000 municipalities nationwide. He is a frequent speaker to legal and municipal audiences throughout the country, and he has coordinated numerous county and statewide political campaigns for local, regional, and national candidates.

Mayor Lashutka's community involvement has earned him several awards, including the Jewish National Fund's Tree of Life Award in 1994, the National Football Foundation Association's Mr. Ohio Gold Award in 1992, and the National Eagle Scout Award in 1996. Through his work with the Columbus-Area Sports Development Corporation, Mayor Lashutka was instrumental in securing the U.S. Men's Olympic Marathon Trials for Columbus in 1992. He was also the Ohio State football color commentator for WBNS Radio from 1983 to 1990.

Ohio State proudly welcomes him back to the university for one of his last appearances as mayor of our city.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Ilse Lehiste

Doctor of Humane Letters

Ilse Lehiste, professor emeritus in Ohio State's Department of Linguistics, founded the department in 1965 and brought it to a position of international prominence.

A native of Estonia, Dr. Lehiste earned a doctorate in philology at the University of Hamburg, Germany, in 1948 and a Ph.D. in linguistics from the University of Michigan in 1959. She began her academic career in this country as an associate professor at Kansas Wesleyan University in 1950. She then held academic appointments at Detroit Institute of Technology and the University of Michigan before joining the Ohio State faculty in 1963 as an associate professor in the Department of Slavic Languages. She was named professor of linguistics and chair of the newly formed Department of Linguistics in 1965, serving in that capacity until her 1987 retirement from the university.

Long recognized for her scholarship, Dr. Lehiste is the sole author of six books, including the standard and most widely cited work on intonation, Suprasegmentals (1970); co-author of three books; and author or co-author of more than 165 articles and 100 reviews. She has held two Guggenheim Fellowships and visiting professorships at the University of Cologne, Germany; University of California at Los Angeles; University of Vienna, Austria; University of Tokyo, Japan; and the University of Tartu, Estonia.

Her pioneering studies of pitch, duration, and intensity in a number of languages—English, Serbo-croatian, Estonian, Finnish, Swedish, Faroese, Icelandic, Lithuanian, Latvian, and, to a lesser extent, German, Czech, Slovene, and Japanese—have brought her international renown as one of the world's great phoneticians. Her recent work has focused on the study of poetic language and verse structure.

Ohio State recognized her accomplishments in 1980 with one of its first Distinguished Research Awards. She is a recipient of the order of the Yugoslav Flag with Golden Wreath and was named a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1990. She is a past president of the Linguistic Society of America and is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, in addition to membership in numerous other scholarly organizations throughout the world.

Ohio State is honored to recognize again the many achievements of this eminent international linguist, scholar, and teacher.

John G. McCoy

Doctor of Business Administration

John G. McCoy retired as chief executive officer and chair of Banc One Corporation in 1984 after a 46-year banking career. He continued as chair of the corporation's executive committee until 1998 when he was named honorary director.

A 1935 graduate of Marietta College, Mr. McCoy began his association with Bank One, Columbus NA, then called City National Bank & Trust Company, in 1937, shortly after receiving his M.B.A. from Stanford University.

Following service in the U.S. Navy during World War II, he returned to City National, where he joined the board of directors in 1949. He was named president and CEO in 1958 and chair and CEO 10 years later. Under his leadership, Bank One became an innovative force in the nation's banking industry, introducing the first automatic teller machines and pioneering the use of credit cards. In 1998, under the leadership of Mr. McCoy's son, John B. McCoy, Banc One merged with First Chicago NBD Corporation to form the Chicago-based Banc One Corporation, the nation's fifth largest bank holding company.

Deeply committed to the central Ohio community, Mr. McCoy and his wife, Jeanne Bonnet McCoy, have long played a vital role in the cultural and educational life of the area. Both have established endowed scholarships at their alma maters, and they are long-time supporters of the Columbus Museum of Art, the American Red Cross of Greater Columbus, and the Columbus Foundation, which recently awarded Mr. McCoy with its Harrison M. Sayre Prize recognizing leadership in philanthropy in central Ohio. He was also recently honored by Banc One and The Limited Inc. with the naming of the John G. McCoy Hall of Science and Technology in the new downtown

Columbus Center of Science and Industry complex.

His service to Ohio State has been extensive. A founding member of The Ohio State University Foundation Board and the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute Foundation Board, he has been instrumental in several major undertakings at the university, including the successful completion of the 1985-1990 University Campaign. He is a current member of the Foundation Board, an emeritus member of the James Cancer Hospital Foundation Board, and a member of the Max M. Fisher College of Business Campaign Committee. In recognition of his many contributions of time, counsel, and support to the university, Ohio State awarded him its Distinguished Service Award in 1993.

With deep respect and gratitude, Ohio State further honors him today.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Kathryn M. Moore

Distinguished Service Award

Kathryn M. Moore is professor and director of the Center for the Study of Advanced Learning Systems at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

She received B.A. and B.S. degrees in English and education, respectively, in 1965 and a M.A. degree in education in 1966 from Ohio State. She received her Ph.D. in education from the University of Wisconsin in 1972. Her service to Ohio State began in her student days with membership in Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, Chimes, and Mortar Board honoraries. She was named Outstanding Senior Woman in 1965.

Dr. Moore joined the faculty of Cornell University in 1971 as an assistant, then associate professor. In 1977, she moved to The Pennsylvania State University as an associate professor, becoming professor and senior research associate at that university's Center for the Study of Higher Education in 1984. In 1986, she was named professor and director of the center. In 1988, she joined the Michigan State faculty as professor of education policy and leadership in the College of Education and, in 1991, was appointed chair of the Department of Educational Administration. In 1997, she was named director of the college's Center for the Study of Advanced Learning Systems.

She is the author of numerous books, research publications, book chapters, articles, and monographs on academic career paths, administrative leadership, women in academia, and student life. In 1984-85, she was a Fulbright Research Scholar at the Federal University of Brasilia in Brazil. She is a past president of the Association for the Study of Higher Education and has served on several national boards and commissions.

Long active in alumni affairs at Ohio

State, Dr. Moore completed a seven-year term with the Alumni Association board of directors in 1977, having served the previous two years as the board's first woman chair. During this time, she played a key role in planning the relocation of the Alumni Association to the recently completed Longaberger Alumni House. Through the years, she has worked to enhance the relationship between the Alumni Advisory Council, the Alumni Association Board, and the university community as a whole. She has remained an active participant in Mortar Board, serving as a class representative and a member of the Mortar Board Anniversary Planning Committee in 1989. In 1987, she was one of 40 honorees at Ohio State's 300th commencement.

Ohio State gratefully again honors the loyalty and firm friendship of its valued alumna.

Wilburn H. Weddington Sr.

Distinguished Service Award

Wilburn H. Weddington Sr. is professor emeritus of clinical family medicine and former associate dean of The Ohio State University College of Medicine and Public Health.

He graduated from Morehouse College in Atlanta in 1944 and received his medical degree from Howard University in Washington, D.C., in 1948. Following graduation, he trained in general practice radiology at the University of Buffalo in New York. He has participated in additional training programs, including electrocardiography at Harvard University, obstetrics and pediatrics at the University of Mexico in Mexico City, and family medicine at Howard University.

He joined the Ohio State medical faculty in 1980 as a clinical associate professor in the Department of Family Medicine. From 1987 to 1991, he served as associate professor of clinical family medicine, becoming a professor and associate dean of medicine administration in 1991. As associate dean, he played a leading role in recruitment, admissions, and advising, particularly of minority students.

Dr. Weddington has long been a respected member of the medical community, serving as president of the Central Ohio Academy of Family Physicians in 1976-77 and as the first African-American president of the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians in 1984-85. He developed the Hilltop Health Center in 1975, the first community health center in Columbus. He is a member of the American, National, and Ohio State Medical Associations, the Columbus and Franklin County Academy of Medicine, and the American Academy of Family Physicians, and he is co-founder of the Columbus Chapter of the National Medical Association.

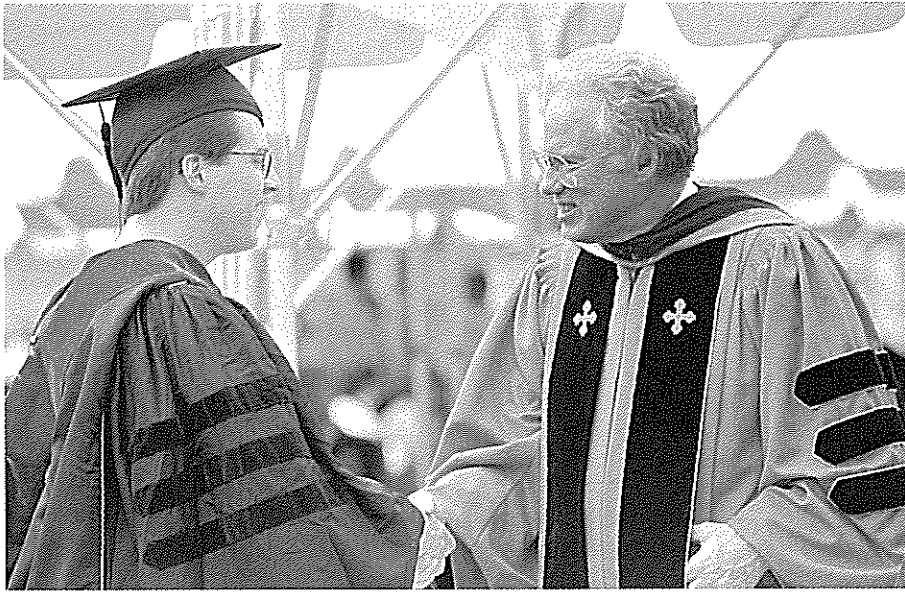

After his retirement in 1995, he was appointed to the Ohio Commission on Minority Health and serves as its vice chair. He is a member of the Development Committee of Ohio State's Department of Family Medicine and a trustee of the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians Foundation Inc. He continues as a valued advisor and mentor to Weddington's Society of Future Physicians, an association of minority pre-medical students.

He has been the recipient of numerous honors, including the Ohio General Assembly's Citation for Tremendous Record of Professional Achievement in 1987, the Columbus Urban League's Recognition for Outstanding Performance and Service in the Black Community in 1987, The Ohio State University's Distinguished Affirmative Action Award in 1989, and the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians Educator of the Year Award in 1991.

Ohio State is pleased to add its own recognition of the many accomplishments of this distinguished healer, educator, mentor, and friend.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT KIRWAN

Serving as the twelfth president of The Ohio State University is the greatest honor of my professional life. I am enormously proud to be part of the university family—particularly on this graduation day. Today's ceremony has been described as a cross between a pep rally, a family reunion, and an academic ceremony. It is all of that—and more.

Commencement is the single greatest event in the life of a university president—a day that reminds all of us that ours is a remarkable institution with a proud tradition and a very bright future. For you, it is a recognition of your hard work and a celebration of your notable achievements.

Now you are about to embark on another phase of your life. And I suspect you face that prospect with excitement and some trepidation. I remember how I felt as a senior. I was ready to move on, but reluctant to leave behind friends and mentors, familiar places and comfortable surroundings.

Let me assure you that no matter where your opportunities take you, there will be no forgetting the place and process that has forged your life and career. Ohio State has made a difference in your life. And now, armed with an Ohio State education, you will make a difference in the lives of others.

As newly minted alumni, you join a family of more than 300,000 Ohio State graduates throughout the world. Based on the quality of your education and the scope of your achievements, I have no doubt of the impact you will have on your careers and your communities.

You have my hearty congratulations and my very best regards as you take on new challenges.

W. E. Kirwan

William E. Kirwan
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed, and another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

Cordially,

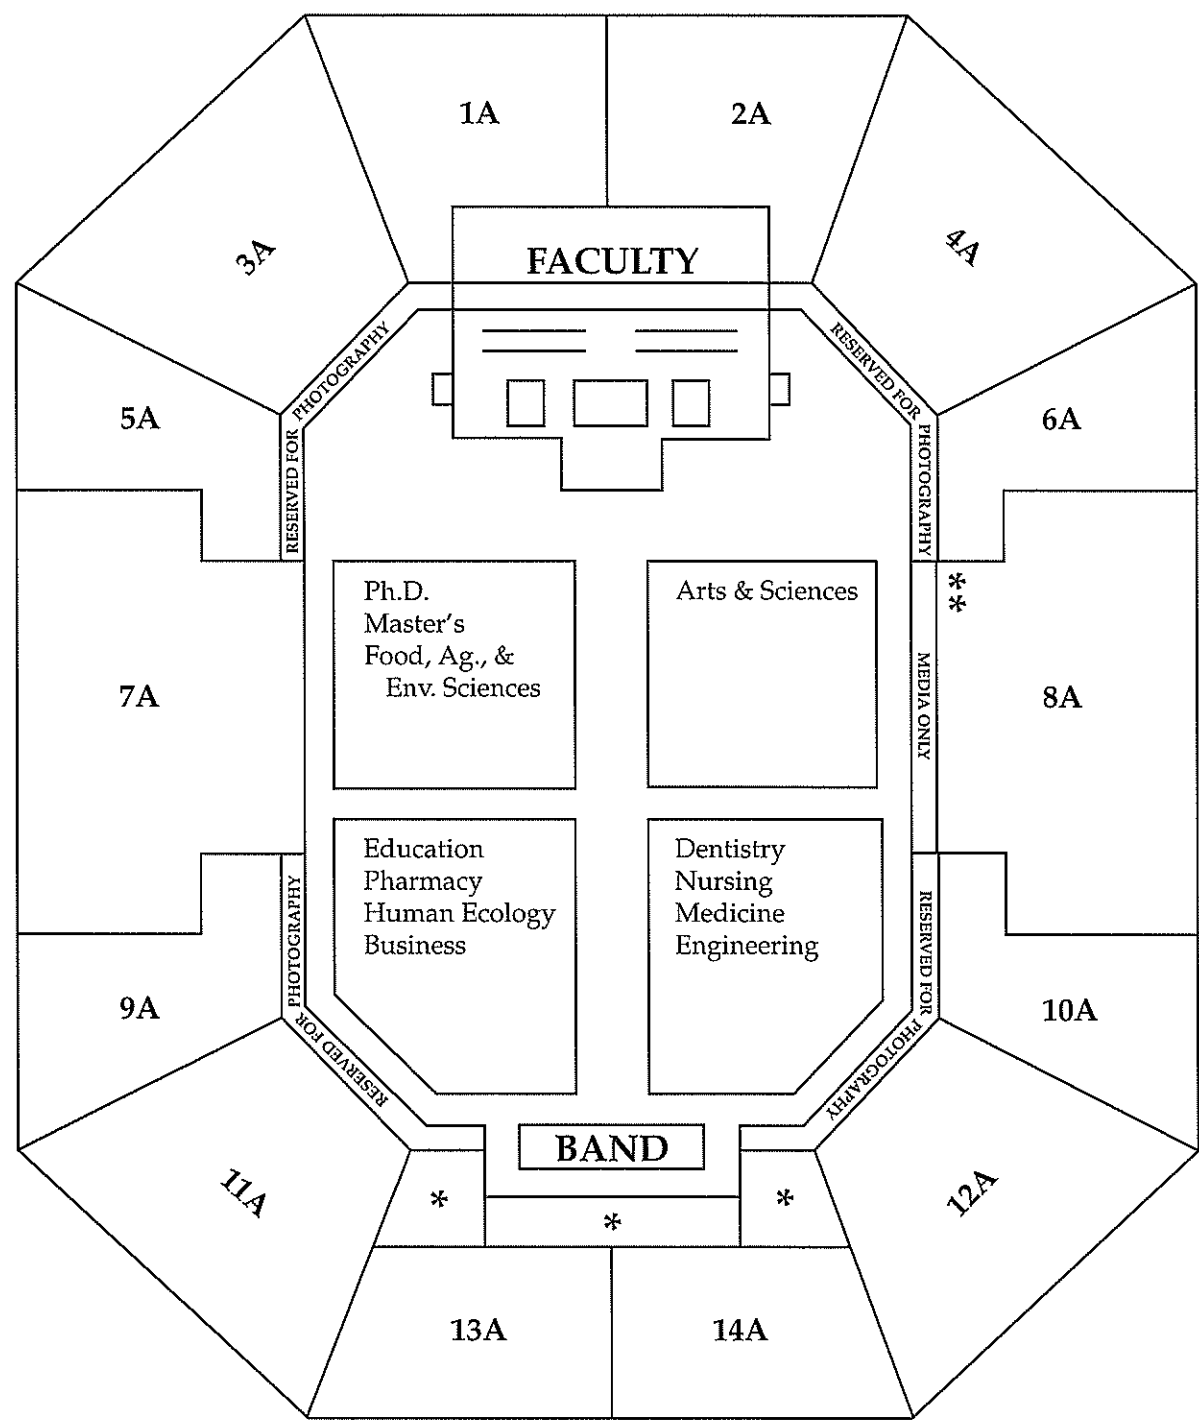

Thomas A. Waltermire

Graduates with Honors

Criteria for graduating with honors are as follows:

Summa Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 3% of the class.

Magna Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 6% of the class.

Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 10% of the class.

With Distinction requires successful completion of a Senior Honors Thesis and graduation in the top 25% of the class.

With Honors in the Liberal Arts requires successful completion of the Arts and Sciences Honors Contract and graduation in the top 25% of the class.

University Commendation designates those whose attainment of high academic standards is judged by the college to be especially meritorious.

This program is not an official graduation list

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: Black, long or short sleeves with a reshaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, with honors in the liberal arts, and with honors in pharmacy.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
