Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio

Graduates and guests led by Helen T. Allen

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Ohio House of Representatives, is currently serving her tenth and final term in the House. She represents the 24th district, which includes eastern suburbs of Franklin County.

The first woman to serve as speaker in Ohio, Speaker Davidson has led the House to pass several major pieces of legislation in the areas of welfare reform, criminal justice, education, economic development, campaign finance reform, and government reorganization.

Born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, Speaker Davidson began her public service career in 1967 as a member of the Reynoldsburg City Council, serving there for 10 years. She also served 18 months as a Truro Township clerk before winning her House seat in 1980. She was executive director of President Gerald Ford's Ohio campaign in 1976 and has been active with the Franklin County Republican Party for more than 20 years. She served as House minority whip from 1987 to 1992 and as House minority leader from 1993 to 1994 before becoming speaker in 1995.

Speaker Davidson chairs the Rules and Reference Committee of the House and serves on the Legislative Service Commission, the Legislative Budget Office, the Capital Square Review and Advisory Board, and Ohio Bicentennial Commission. Speaker Davidson holds honorary law degrees from Ohio University and Capital University and serves on the Board of Trustees at the University of Findlay and Franklin University.

Ohio State is proud to welcome this distinguished and dedicated public servant to address today's graduating class.

William Form

Doctor of Sociology

illiam Form, professor emeritus of sociology at Ohio State, has had a long and distinguished career as one of the nation's foremost sociologists. Born in Rochester, New York, he received bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Rochester in 1938 and 1940 and his doctorate from the University of Maryland in 1944. He taught at American University, University of Maryland, Stephens College, and Kent State University before joining the sociology faculty at Michigan State University in 1947.

During his tenure at Michigan State, he served as associate director of research and planning in the School of Labor and Industrial Relations from 1959 to 1961 and as acting director from 1963 to 1964. In 1962, he was named Research Professor and, from 1965 to 1968, served as department chair. In 1971, he joined the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, as professor of sociology and labor and industrial relations, serving until 1983. In 1984, he joined Ohio State's faculty as professor of sociology and, in 1988, was named professor emeritus.

Over the past half-century, Professor Form has authored a number of highly influential books as well as some 70 articles in scholarly journals and 20 book chapters. His first book, Industrial Sociology (1951), was a comprehensive overview dealing with work, economic organizations, trade unions, labormanagement conflict, and community. The volume, one of the first in its field, was translated into five other languages and had two revised editions in English.

In 1958, he published Community in Disaster, which prompted numerous other studies of community power structures. His books Blue-Collar Stratification: Autoworkers in Four Countries (1976), Divided We Stand: Essays on the American Working Class (1986), and Segmented Labor/Fractured Politics: Labor Politics in American Life (1995) provide an in-depth study of working-class life. He has co-authored several other works, including one—Income and Ideology—with his wife, Joan Huber, Ohio State emeritus vice president and provost and emeritus professor of sociology.

Professor Form has held numerous leadership positions in the American Sociological Association and served two terms as editor of the American Sociological Review.

Michael Murray

Doctor of Musical Arts

world-renowned organist, Michael Murray has also earned a reputation as a scholar and author. His 38 recordings on the Telarc label are among the classical music industry's worldwide bestsellers.

Born in Indiana, he studied music at Butler University and the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music before moving to Paris to study with Marcel Dupré. With Dupré, he studied harmony, counterpoint, improvisation, composition, and piano, as well as the organ, and he took occasional lessons from Jean Langlais, André Marchal, and Nadia Boulanger.

He began his career in 1968 by performing the complete works of Bach in 12 recitals in Cleveland. In 1972, he performed the complete works of Franck in Cleveland, repeating the performance in 1990 at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York for the Franck centennial. He made his European debut in 1972 with an all-Bach recital at Leiden University. Since then, Mr. Murray has performed in the Near East, the Far East, nearly every European capital, and most major cities in North America.

After his 1986 New York debut, the New York Times described him as "a splendid musician balancing matters of detail with lyrical line, brilliance of registration with sobriety, and careful pacing with natural intensity—all with unusual intelligence and feeling."

In addition to his concertizing, he has written numerous articles and has published three books. A biography of his teacher, Marcel Dupré: The Work of a Master Organist, ran to three printings in English, was translated into German and French, and was a selection of the Performing Arts Book Club. His Albert Schweitzer, Musician is the only comprehensive account of Schweitzer's musical life. His most recent book, French Masters of the Organ, was published by Yale University Press in 1998. He is currently at work on a biography of historian Jacques Barzun.

He has lectured and given master classes throughout the United States, and he is often heard on WOSU Radio and other National Public Radio stations as a recitalist, interviewer, and lecturer. He is a member of the Advisory Board of the Schweitzer Institute for the Humanities, a nonprofit foundation affiliated with the United Nations.

A resident of Columbus, Mr. Murray has been on the music staff at St. Mark's Episcopal Church since 1994.

Frank Wobst

Doctor of Humane Letters

rank Wobst is chairman and chief executive officer of Huntington Bancshares Inc., a Columbusbased bank holding company with more than $29 billion in assets, providing products and services through more than 600 offices in eight states.

A native of Dresden, Germany, Mr. Wobst is a 1956 graduate of the University of Erlangen with a degree in economics. He also received a law degree in 1958 from the University of Goettingen and a degree in banking from the Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University in 1964. His banking career started in 1958 at the Fidelity National Bank in Lynchburg, Virginia, where he remained until 1974.

He moved that year to Columbus to become president of The Huntington National Bank. In 1981, he was elected chief executive officer of Huntington Bancshares Incorporated.

Mr. Wobst has been actively involved in the community by serving on the boards of a number of corporate, professional, and civic organizations, including Children's Hospital of Columbus, the Columbus Museum of Art, the Development Council of Ohio, the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland, Central Ohio United Way, and the Ohio Business Roundtable.

Mr. Wobst is an honorary consul of the Federal Republic of Germany and is the driving force behind the Sister City International relationship between Dresden and Columbus. This relationship is one of the strongest single partnerships in the Sister City International network. In 1998, he received the Volunteer of the Year award from Sister Cities International.

Long a valued advocate for Ohio State, Mr. Wobst is a member of The Ohio State University Foundation Board, the Advisory Council to the Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University Investment Committee, and the Wexner Center for the Arts board, as well as a number of other activities.

Everett B. Laybourne

Distinguished Service Award

into a family of Buckeyes. His father, a 1902 graduate, served on the university's Board of Trustees and his brother, a 1932 graduate, later became president of the Alumni Association. During his own student days, Mr. Laybourne distinguished himself as editor of the yearbook, president of his fraternity, member of Bucket and Dipper and Sphinx, and senior class orator, before graduating in 1932 with a bachelor's degree in English cum laude. He received a juris doctor degree from Harvard University in 1935.

He began practicing business and corporate law in Los Angeles in 1936, founding his first of several law firms four years later. During his distinguished law career, he has facilitated numerous reorganizations and acquisitions, coordinated extensive corporate litigation, and provided general corporate counsel both here and abroad. During the early 1950s, the U.S. State Department asked Mr. Laybourne to negotiate the settlement of a major World War II Lend-Lease obligation with the former Soviet Union, requiring 18 separate meetings in the Soviet Union.

Mr. Laybourne, along with actress Jane Russell, is a co-founder of WAIF, an international organization working with adoption agencies and orphanages around the world. WAIF has facilitated more than 40,000 adoptions. In 1988, Mr. Laybourne's law firm merged with one of the world's largest legal firms, and he semi-retired, remaining on several corporate boards and continuing as a charity activist.

Ohio State has long been a beneficiary of his time, wisdom, and generosity. He has taken leadership roles in the university's two recent fund-raising campaigns and served on the "Affirm Thy Friendship" campaign's National Major Gift Committee for Southern California. As an officer of the Los Angeles-based Ralph M. Parsons Foundation, he has been influential in obtaining funding for initiatives in Ohio State's Colleges of Engineering and Humanities. His numerous awards and recognitions include the Big Ten Club of Southern California's "Man of the Year" award, the Ohio State Alumni Citizenship Award, the Ohio State Alumni Centennial Award, and the Alumni Award of Distinction from the College of Humanities.

Ohio State proudly adds its own honor to this valued friend and advocate.

Theodore B. Myers

Distinguished Service Award

led Myers has a long record of exemplary service to his alma mater, beginning with his enrollment at the university in 1939. During his undergraduate years, he was a member of the Ohio State Marching Band, "dotting the I" during his senior year in 1943. Following military service during World War II, the Marion native returned to Ohio State, earning his master's degree in 1948 and his doctorate in 1958.

He began his academic career at Capital University in Columbus, where he served on the biology faculty for 22 years. In 1968, as Ohio State opened its regional campus in Marion, Professor Myers returned to his hometown to teach biology and zoology, becoming the first regional faculty member to earn the rank of full professor.

While continuing to teach, he was named assistant director of community relations and development for the Marion Campus. As chief development officer of the campus from 1973 to 1988, he raised more than $1 million for campus programs and student support.

Well known as a conservationist and a historian, he has left two important legacies to the Marion Campus: The Marion Campus Prairie and Nature Center and the Harding/Thomas Room in the campus library. The Prairie, an eight-acre preserve of historic and native species, was Professor Myers' concept, and he played the leading role in its development and success. The Harding/Thomas Room provides resources for the scholarly investigation of two Marion natives—President Warren G. Harding and six-time

Socialist Party presidential candidate Norman Thomas.

He also established the Theodore Myers Endowed Scholarship for students studying biological sciences at the Marion Campus and was instrumental in securing resources for the growth of the Honors Program.

His civic involvement includes extensive volunteer efforts for Marion Rotary, Marion Historical Society, and the Palace Guard, which worked to preserve Marion's historic Palace Theatre. He is a member of the Ohio Academy of Sciences, the Entomological Society of America, and the Ohio College of Biology Teachers.

Since his 1988 retirement, at which time he received the Alumni Citizenship Award, he has remained an active and enthusiastic alumnus.

A Message from President Kirwan

erving as the twelfth president of The Ohio State University is a tremendous honor which I shall cherish always. I am enormously proud to be part of the university family—particularly on this graduation day. Today's ceremony has been described as a cross between a pep rally, a family reunion, and an academic ceremony. It is all of that—and more.

Commencement is the single greatest event in the life of a university president—a day that reminds all of us that ours is a remarkable institution with a proud tradition and a very bright future. For you, the graduates, it is a recognition of your hard work and a celebration of your notable achievements.

Now you are about to embark on another phase of your life. I suspect you face that prospect with excitement and some trepidation. I remember how I felt as a senior. I was ready to move on but reluctant to leave behind friends and mentors, familiar places, and comfortable surroundings.

Let me assure you that no matter where your opportunities take you, there will be no forgetting the place and process that has forged your life and career. Ohio State has made a difference in your life. And now, armed with an Ohio State education, you will make a difference in the lives of others.

As newly-minted alumni, you join a family of more than 500,000 Ohio State graduates throughout the world. Based on the quality of your education and the scope of your achievements, I have no doubt that you will be successful.

You have my hearty congratulations and very best regards as you take on the new challenges that will come with the next phase of your life.

William E. Kirwan President

W.E. Kiwan

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

ongratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed, and another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

This program is not an official graduation list

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

he colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves. Master: Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, with honors in business, with honors in the liberal arts, and with honors in pharmacy.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.* Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy
Philosophy
Veterinary Medicine

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
