Autumn Commencement

DECEMBER 21, 2014

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolfo in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudéamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those pros and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons"; St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo, Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

Graduates and guests led by Cierra B. Byrd

*Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.*

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

David Steigerwald

Professor David Steigerwald is a nationally recognized scholar of 20th-century American history, specializing in the 1960s and American consumer society.

After earning his bachelor's degree from The Ohio State University, followed by his advanced degrees from the University of Rochester, Professor Steigerwald became a faculty member in Ohio State's Department of History and has taught at the Marion and Columbus campuses since 1990. His teaching repertoire includes courses on modern America, the '60s and the Vietnam War. He also serves as director of the university's World War II Study Abroad Program, guiding groups of students each year on three-week tours of key battlefields, memorials and museums in Europe.

Stemming from his passion for history education, Professor Steigerwald secured a $1 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education for History in the Heartland, a K-12 program for Ohio public school teachers.

He is the author of many essays and books, including Wilsonian Idealism in America, The Sixties and the End of Modern America and Culture's Vanities: The Paradox of Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World. He coauthored Debating the 1960s: Liberal, Conservative and Radical Perspectives, and his 2010 essay, "Walter Reuther, the UAW and the Dilemmas of Automation," was recognized as the year's best essay in American labor history by the journal Labor History.

In 2013, he co-edited A Destiny of Choice? New Directions in American Consumer History, and he is currently finishing a study on postwar American thought, which will appear in Lost in the Land of Plenty: Affluence and Alienation in American Thought, 1945-2001.

In addition to his remarkable scholarship, Professor Steigerwald is an acclaimed teacher. Twice, Phi Alpha Theta has honored him with the Clio Award for outstanding teaching, and in 2009, he received Ohio State's highest recognition for teaching excellence, the Alumni Award for Distinguished Teaching.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Martha M. Garland

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Over the course of nearly 40 years, Martha Garland built a distinguished career at The Ohio State University as a professor and senior administrator.

After earning her undergraduate degree from Tulane University and her master's degree from Cornell University, Dr. Garland arrived at Ohio State as a doctoral candidate in 1971. She completed her doctorate in 1975 and served in various administrative roles at the university before joining the Department of History as a faculty member in 1982. She taught courses in European and modern British history while publishing her research on English intellectual and social history.

In 1992, after receiving tenure as an associate professor, she became associate dean of the College of Humanities. Five years later, she was appointed vice provost for Enrollment Management and dean of Undergraduate Education.

During her administrative career, Dr. Garland helped develop many student-focused initiatives, including the First Year Experience program and the Office of Undergraduate Research. She spearheaded or significantly supported a wide range of projects, including the elimination of University College and a shift to direct enrollment in the college of each student's major, the creation of a campus-wide Service Learning Initiative, enhancements to the Denman Undergraduate Research Forum and the creation of an integrated Student Information System.

She served on the University Senate and numerous other committees, including co-chairing the Committee on the Undergraduate Experience, which explored all aspects of the student experience and recommended sweeping changes. These changes led to marked improvement in recruitment and admission efforts and, ultimately, graduation rates.

In 2010, after retiring from her role as vice provost, she returned to the university to serve as acting vice president of Student Life. Currently, Dr. Garland advises the university's committee working to raise scholarship funds.

Robert J. Weiler

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

An esteemed member of the Columbus community, Robert Weiler has maintained a deep connection to Ohio State since the 1960s, when he earned two degrees from the university. Over the years, Dr. Weiler has achieved great success in the real estate industry, currently serving as chair of the board of the Robert Weiler Company, a full-service commercial real estate firm. He has shared his extensive knowledge with the next generation of leaders as an adjunct faculty member at the Moritz College of Law, and as a frequent lecturer for student groups from Moritz and Fisher College of Business.

A loyal supporter of the university and its students, Dr. Weiler made his first gift to Ohio State in 1959. Since then, he and his wife, Missy, have supported the university as leadership donors, establishing the Robert Weiler MBA Scholarship Fund at Fisher in 2004, and generously providing rent-free housing for Ohio State MBA students. In 2013, they created the Robert and Missy Weiler Scholarship Fund in the College of Education and Human Ecology, supporting students with financial need who major in urban education.

For his exceptional service, Dr. Weiler was honored in 2002 with Fisher's Community Service Award. In 2012, he joined the university's Foundation Board of Directors.

He has devoted much time and energy to increasing access to higher education. While president of the Columbus Board of Education, he helped found the "I Know I Can" college access program, one of the most successful of its kind.

Dr. Weiler received his master's degree in real estate and his doctorate in finance from Ohio State. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Arizona, and his juris doctorate from Capital University Law School. He has served in leadership roles for numerous organizations, including the Columbus Board of Realtors, the Columbus Metropolitan YMCA and COSI.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencement derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

In dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
