ABOUT TODAY'S CEREMONY

Today's ceremony on the Oval is a departure from recent tradition at Ohio State, but it is not a first. During the university's first 50 years, commencement took place on or around the Oval, including outdoor ceremonies in 1909 and 1918, very near today's site. In 1999, Spring Commencement was moved to the Oval as Ohio Stadium, site of most spring commencements since 1927, underwent renovation and was unavailable for use. Our desire to maintain the tradition of all graduates at one ceremony necessitated a return to this historic spot in the academic center of the university. This spring, we continue the tradition as we celebrate the 2001 Spring Commencement on the Oval.

Photography

A professional photographer has been retained to take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is received. Because of the large number of graduates, and because there is no suitable area from which to take photos of diploma distribution, guests are asked to remain in their seats. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate's permanent address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but are not obligated to do so.

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. today.

President Kirwan looks forward to personally congratulating graduates and their guests immediately following the ceremony in front of Bricker Hall, in the northwest corner of the Oval.

And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Bill Cosby

Doctor of Education

William H. Cosby, Jr. was born to William and Anna Cosby on July 12 in Philadelphia. Calling himself a "late bloomer," he did not realize the value of a formal education until after the first four days of boot camp in the U.S. Navy. Cosby said, "Four years later in May, when I got out of the Navy, I hit the ground running from Norfolk, Virginia, and immediately enrolled at Temple University in Philadelphia."

Bill Cosby is well known for his commitment to education. He emphatically believes that the best assurance for a satisfying and rewarding life begins with knowledge. Cosby himself went back to college, long after he had achieved much of his success, to obtain a master's degree, as well as an Ed.D. from the University of Massachusetts. He has, in fact, applied this further education in his professional life.

He has never stopped realizing the importance of challenging himself: "People always say, 'You don't need money—why are you still working?' My answer is that it isn't about the money. That's academic. It's about accepting the challenges of one's own ideas, clarifying the unanswered questions, and pursuing the excitement of discovery.

"It is always a pleasure to see those fresh faces of the new graduates. It's also fun to notice the relieved smiles of the parents who are wondering, 'Are they going to be all right?' The unanswered questions are now really directed at them."

Mrs. Cosby is equally passionate about the importance of education, and she, too, has attained an Ed.D. Together, they have donated funds to a wide range of universities and delivered commencement addresses to further emphasize the importance of learning.

Rationem educationis tuae reddere debeas.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Lester R. Brown

Doctor of Science

Lester R. Brown is president and senior researcher with Earth Policy Institute as well as chair of the board and past president of the Worldwatch Institute, a private, nonprofit, Washington-based research institute devoted to the analysis of global environmental issues.

Mr. Brown earned a B.S. degree in agricultural science from Rutgers University in 1955, an M.S. in agricultural economics from the University of Maryland in 1959, and an M.P.A. in public administration from Harvard University in 1962. In 1959 he joined the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agricultural Service as an international agricultural analyst.

In 1964 Mr. Brown became an advisor on foreign agricultural policy to Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, who appointed him administrator of the department's International Agricultural Development Service in 1966. He left government service in 1969 to help establish the Overseas Development Council. In 1974 Mr. Brown founded the Worldwatch Institute with funding from the Rockefeller Brothers Fund.

Mr. Brown launched Worldwatch's State of the World reports, annual assessments on global environment, in 1984. These reports have been translated into some 30 languages and are used as textbooks in more than 500 college and university courses, ranging from biology to political science. Under his leadership, Worldwatch publications expanded over time with the introduction of the bimonthly magazine World Watch and the launching of the annual report Vital Signs: The Trends That Are Shaping Our Futures. Worldwatch also inaugurated an Environmental Alert book series with Saving the Planet: How to Shape an Environmentally Sustainable Global Economy, co-authored by Mr. Brown. He also wrote Who Will Feed China? and co-authored Beyond Malthus: Nineteen Dimensions of the Population Challenge.

This May Mr. Brown founded Earth Policy Institute to provide a vision of an environmentally sustainable economy and to help set public agenda on environmental issues.

Described by The Washington Post as "one of the world's most influential thinkers," Mr. Brown has been the recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship, the 1987 United Nations' Environment Prize, the 1989 World Wide Fund for Nature Gold Medal, and the 1994 Blue Planet Prize.

Daniel U. Kiley

Doctor of Landscape Architecture

During a career that has spanned more than half a century, Daniel Kiley has become one of the most significant landscape architects in the world. He has worked on some of the world's most important commissions and with many of the 20th and 21st centuries' most distinguished architects and firms.

The Boston native attended the Harvard Graduate School of Design from 1936 to 1938. He served in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers during World War II and was responsible for designing and constructing the Nuremberg Courtrooms, for which he received the Legion of Merit in 1945—the first of numerous awards for his work through the years. In 1997 he received the National Medal of Arts, the highest honor that can be awarded an artist in the United States, presented by President and Mrs. Clinton.

Mr. Kiley's work has been shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York, the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., and in traveling national exhibitions. Among the many sites he has helped design are the Washington Mall and Tidal Basin, Dulles Airport, Lincoln Center, the National Gallery of Art East Wing, the John F. Kennedy Library in Boston, the Getty Center in Los Angeles, the National Sculpture Garden, the Chicago Navy Pier, Fountain Place in Dallas, and the United States Air Force Academy, as well as numerous private residential landscapes and gardens.

He served on President Kennedy's Advisory Council for Pennsylvania

Avenue, the National Council for Arts and Government, the Boston Redevelopment Authority, the Cambridge Redevelopment Authority, the Washington, D.C. Redevelopment Land Agency, and the Vermont Council on the Arts. He has been a Landscape Architect in Residence of the American Academy in Rome. In 1995 he became the first landscape architect to be awarded the Arnold W. Brunner Prize in Architecture by the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

His work has been widely published in professional and technical periodicals in the United States and abroad, including two issues of Process: Architecture devoted entirely to his work. In 1999 Little, Brown and Company published Dan Kiley: The Complete Works of America's Master Landscape Architect.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Clark C. Kellogg

Distinguished Service Award

Clark Kellogg, former Buckeye basketball star forward who went on to the National Basketball Association (NBA), is a college basketball analyst for CBS. He provides commentary for the network's regular season college basketball broadcasts and serves as lead studio analyst with host Greg Gumbel during broadcasts of the NCAA basketball championship.

A three-year starter at Ohio State, Mr. Kellogg was named All-Big Ten and Most Valuable Player in 1982 and was voted The Chicago Tribune Silver Basketball Award Winner. He led the Buckeyes in both scoring and rebounding as a sophomore and junior, ranking 19th in career scoring and fifth in career rebounding at Ohio State. He also ranks fifth in career rebounding average and sixth in blocked shots.

Mr. Kellogg left Ohio State after his junior year and was selected eighth in the first round of the NBA draft by the Indiana Pacers. He played for five seasons before retiring with chronic knee problems. In 1987 he began his broadcasting career as an analyst for the Pacers' radio broadcasts and continues as their television analyst. He served as a studio and game analyst for ESPN from 1990 to 1997. After doing work for CBS during the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament since 1993, Mr. Kellogg joined CBS Sports full time in 1997.

During this time, Mr. Kellogg continued to pursue his college degree, returning to Ohio State part time in 1983 and earning his bachelor's degree in business management in 1996. He has remained active with his alma mater, delivering the commencement address in autumn 1998. A featured speaker during Black History celebrations on numerous occasions, he has also addressed students during Homecoming on diversity and undergraduate education. Through words and personal example, Mr. Kellogg has provided inspiration and encouragement to many students and has helped raise funds for a variety of scholarships.

Thekla Reese Shackelford

Distinguished Service Award

Thekla Reese "Teckie" Shackelford is an educational consultant, founder of School Selection Consulting, and a past president of the national professional association for educational consultants.

A director of The Ohio State University Foundation Board since 1994, she served as its chair from 1997 to 1999. She was co-chair of the university's record-setting "Affirm Thy Friendship" Campaign and served on the National Campaign Executive Committee. She has served as a member of the College of Veterinary Medicine's Development Advisory Council and has assisted the College of Education in numerous initiatives in the Columbus community.

Mrs. Shackelford earned her bachelor's degree from Denison University in 1956 and became a junior high school teacher and admissions counselor. In 1978 she transformed her talent for guiding students toward college into a successful educational counseling business, School Selection Counseling. She is a founding board member and chair of "I Know I Can," an initiative launched in 1988 to encourage and assist Columbus school children on the path to college. More than 1,000 of these students have subsequently attended Ohio State. The Columbus area League of Women Voters honored the program with its Democracy in Action Award in 1997.

In 1986 Mrs. Shackelford became the first woman to be named chair of the board of The Columbus Foundation. She also served as director of development for The Buckeye Ranch School and has served on several corporate boards.

Together with her husband, Don, Mrs. Shackelford has created the Donald B. and Thekla R. Shackelford Medical Research Fund in the College of Medicine and Public Health and the Thekla R. and Donald B. Professorship in Small Animal Medicine in the College of Veterinary Medicine. In addition, they have created the Everett D. Reese Chair of Banking and Monetary Economics in the Fisher College of Business in memory of her father.

Mrs. Shackelford's civic and community involvement has been recognized with numerous awards, including the M.E. Sensenbrenner Award for Community Service, the Christopher Columbus Achievement Award, the Temple Israel Humanitarian Award, the YWCA Woman of Achievement Award, the Ronald Reagan Award for Voluntary Excellence, and the Ohio Chapter of the National Society of Fund Raising Executives' Outstanding Philanthropist Award. She has been inducted into the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges' Hall of Excellence, the Central Ohio Business Hall of Fame, and the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

For more than a century, Ohio State graduates have come together to present a Class Gift to celebrate graduation and benefit future generations of students at the university. The Class Gift tradition started in 1891, when, on the eve of graduation, students planted five elm trees on the Oval.

For many years, the annual Class Gift was designated to a single project, such as the Orton Hall Chimes, the Victory Bell, the Gateway entrance, and the University Seal. In 1992, the Class Gift program was revised to allow students to make a gift to any facet of the university that is important to them—their college, school, department or program, the libraries, hospitals, or student organizations.

In 1996, the Class Gift became part of a larger giving program at Ohio State—called Campus Campaign. The Campus Campaign encompasses staff, faculty, and student giving and has been very successful in providing vital funds to the university.

In 1998, a new tradition began. Prospective graduates were asked to give $19.98 during their graduation year. In keeping with the new tradition, graduates in the Class of 2001 have been asked to pledge $20.01 to support an Ohio State fund that is important to them and to celebrate their graduation year. To date, more than $40,000 has been donated by the Class of 2001. Efforts are ongoing to involve students who have not yet participated in the Class Gift and those who will graduate later this year.

The university gratefully recognizes the commitment of the Class Gift Student Volunteers for their dedicated efforts in support of their alma mater.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT KIRWAN

It is appropriate that this—the 356th Commencement of The Ohio State University—take place on the university's most notable landmark, the Oval. In a real sense, the Oval is the crossroads of our campus. It is the place where many things converge: old friends and new ideas, light banter and serious conversation, noisy exchanges and quiet reflection. Here in the shadow of the William Oxley Thompson Library and in the shade of oak trees, academic purpose merges with collegiate life, just as it does today with this Commencement ceremony.

You, the members of the class of 2001, come to this crossroads of the campus today to mark a crossroads in your lives. As you move forward from this occasion, I am certain you will cherish always your days at this remarkable university, a place that has helped forge the paths your lives will follow, a place that is the source of friendships you will enjoy throughout your lifetime, and a place that will be the font of wonderful memories in the years to come. British Poet Laureate John Masefield expressed well the enduring character of a university. He said:

*"There are few earthly things more beautiful than a university.
It is a place where those who hate ignorance may strive to know,
Where those who perceive truth may strive to make others see;
Where seekers and learners alike, banded together in the search for knowledge,
Will honor thought in all its finer ways,
Will welcome thinkers in distress or in exile,
Will uphold ever the dignity of thought and learning
And will exact standards in these things."*

Ohio State is and always will be such a place for you. This university has prepared you well for what we hope will be a lifetime of productivity, personal fulfillment, and civic responsibility. No matter where future opportunities may take you, The Ohio State University will always be with you—as a primary source of your education and some of your fondest memories. Through time and change, you will always be Buckeyes.

Today, your families and friends, your faculty and mentors recognize your hard work and celebrate your notable achievements. Tomorrow, we will begin to follow your new accomplishments with great pride. We have no doubt of the success you will enjoy in your careers and your communities. Please know of my personal best wishes as you join the company of educated women and men and the more than 500,000 proud graduates of The Ohio State University.

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencement derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In the light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, with honors in business, with honors in the liberal arts, and with honors in pharmacy.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine.....	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

No indoor facility on campus is large enough to accommodate the graduating class and 30,000 guests. In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned.

Commencement will take place on the Oval, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled.

Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced by 7:30 a.m., before graduates are required to report for commencement. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been officially announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to the Ohio Union Ballrooms where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 3 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 3 p.m. will be taken to the University Registrar's office in 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., June 11-15. If a diploma remains unclaimed after June 15, it will be mailed to the home address on record within one month of commencement. Mailing addresses can be verified by calling the University Registrar's office at (614) 292-1960; fax (614) 292-4940; or e-mail at commence@exchange.ureg.ohio-state.edu.
