POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeteamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those pros and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Anthony S. Fauci, MD

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

From HIV/AIDS and malaria to the Ebola and Zika viruses, Anthony S. Fauci has long played a critical role in the battle against our world's infectious diseases. Since his appointment in 1984 as director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases at the National Institutes of Health, Dr. Fauci has overseen an extensive research portfolio devoted to preventing, diagnosing and treating infectious and immune-related diseases.

A physician-scientist, Dr. Fauci has advised five U.S. presidents and the Department of Health and Human Services on domestic and global health issues. As the long-time chief of the Laboratory of Immunoregulation, he has made seminal contributions to the understanding of how HIV destroys the body's defenses, leaving it susceptible to deadly infections. His work has been instrumental in developing treatments that enable people with HIV to live long, active lives. He also was a principal architect of the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief, a program that has saved millions of lives throughout the developing world.

Dr. Fauci has been awarded 42 honorary doctoral degrees and is the author, co-author or editor of more than 1,200 scientific publications. From 1983 to 2002, he was the 13th most-cited scientist among the 3 million authors in all disciplines who published articles in scientific journals during that 20-year period. In a 2016 analysis of Google Scholar citations, he ranked as the 18th most highly cited researcher of all time.

A graduate of the College of the Holy Cross, he received his medical degree from Cornell University Medical College. He is a member of the prestigious National Academy of Sciences, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Institute of Medicine and numerous professional societies. His many honors include the Presidential Medal of Freedom (the highest honor given by the United States to a civilian), the National Medal of Science and the Mary Woodard Lasker Award for Public Service.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Louis J. Ignarro, PhD

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Nobel Laureate and esteemed pharmacologist Louis J. Ignarro has devoted his life's work to advancing heart health around the world.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Dr. Ignarro studied undergraduate pharmacology at Columbia University before earning his doctorate at the University of Minnesota. In 1968, he completed a postdoctoral fellowship in chemical pharmacology with the National Institutes of Health. Upon completing his fellowship, Dr. Ignarro was recruited by Geigy Pharmaceuticals to lead the company's biochemical and anti-inflammatory program. When Geigy merged with Ciba Pharmaceuticals in the 1970s, he left the drug industry to pursue a career in academia.

As a professor with the Tulane University School of Medicine, Dr. Ignarro began his revolutionary research into nitric oxide and its relationship with the cyclic nucleotide GMP. His numerous discoveries, including that nitric oxide relaxes vascular smooth muscle, have led to significant advancements in cardiovascular science and the prevention of heart disease.

In 1993, Dr. Ignarro became a Distinguished Professor of Pharmacology with the UCLA School of Medicine, where he currently serves as professor emeritus in the Department of Molecular and Medical Pharmacology. At UCLA, he has excelled as both a research scientist and a professor, winning many Golden Apple teaching awards from his students.

Dr. Ignarro received the 1998 Nobel Prize in Medicine, along with Robert F. Furchtgott and Ferid Murad, for their discovery that nitric oxide acts as a signaling molecule in the cardiovascular system. He also has received the American Heart Association's Basic Research Prize and Distinguished Scientist Award.

A prolific scholar, Dr. Ignarro has published numerous articles and books. He is the founder of the Nitric Oxide Society and is a member of the National Academy of Sciences and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He also is well known as a Nutrition Advisory Board member for Herbalife, a global nutrition and weight-management company.

Richard T. Santulli

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

For more than three decades, Richard T. Santulli has enjoyed an illustrious career as a visionary entrepreneur, businessman and founding father of two major aviation industries.

A New York native, Mr. Santulli earned his undergraduate and graduate degrees in applied mathematics from the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn. He made his Wall Street debut in 1969 with Goldman Sachs, a global investment firm. He rose through the ranks quickly, creating the firm's quantitative analysis group and, later, leading its leasing business unit.

After becoming vice president of investment banking, Mr. Santulli left Goldman Sachs to start his own leasing company in 1980. His creation of RTS Helicopters — the world's largest helicopter lessor — helped shape the face of modern aviation leasing. At its peak, the company had amassed nearly 200 helicopters. In 1984, he purchased Columbus-based charter aviation operator Executive Jet. Two years later, he turned Executive Jet into the first-ever fractional aircraft program, and revolutionized the elite business of owning private jets.

His ingenious concept for joint ownership of private aircraft caught the attention of fellow iconic businessman Warren Buffet. In 1998, Mr. Buffet and his company, Berkshire Hathaway, bought Executive Jet for nearly $730 million and renamed it NetJets. As chair and CEO, Mr. Santulli spent more than a decade building

NetJets into a globally recognized brand and the largest private aviation company in the world.

In late 2009, he left NetJets to co-found Milestone Aviation Group, currently the global leader in helicopter leasing. Last year, GE Capital acquired Milestone, where Mr. Santulli continues to serve as chairman, for nearly $1.8 billion.

Mr. Santulli's success in business is complemented by his philanthropic leadership. He and his wife, Peggy, are stalwart supporters of Pelotonia, and since 2003 he has served as chairman of the Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund, which has provided almost $200 million in support of U.S. military personnel and families.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

For more than 25 years, Columbus native Robert L. Caldwell Jr. has dedicated himself to enacting societal change and bringing awareness to the racial and financial struggles that exist in our neighborhoods. Drawing on his expertise in the areas of social justice, diversity and equity, collaborative leadership and urban community development, Mr. Caldwell has worked closely with Ohio State and the city of Columbus to improve the quality of life for residents in many University District neighborhoods.

At two points in his life, Mr. Caldwell lived in low-income communities with the goal of transforming them from the inside out. In 1991, while living in Greenbrier on Columbus's east side, he helped found TEACH (The Enrichment Association for Community Healing). Nine years later, he moved into Weinland Park near Ohio State's south campus. His mission was to revitalize the neighborhood, and he began by founding the Weinland Park Community Civic Association.

As president of the association, Mr. Caldwell led the creation of a comprehensive economic development plan that would impact more than 100,000 residents, students and employees living and working in and around Weinland Park. He also helped in the conceptualization of the Schoenbaum Family Center, a partnership between Columbus City Schools and Ohio State, and led a major employment initiative to provide training for area residents to prepare them for construction industry jobs.

He currently serves as executive director of AnswerPoverty.org and as regional director for training and development at Think Tank, Inc. He is a senior fellow at Mission Columbus, managing partner at Community Revitalization Associates, and is the board chair at the University Area Enrichment Association and the University District Freedom School Program.

An inspiring civic leader, Mr. Caldwell's achievements have been recognized by his alma mater, Denison University; the National Alliance to End Homelessness; the Columbus Chamber of Commerce; and the governor of the state of Ohio.

Nancy Hardin Rogers, JD

A 1972 graduate of Yale Law School, Nancy Hardin Rogers began her distinguished 40-year career as a faculty member at Ohio State's law school in 1975. Thanks to her visionary leadership, Professor Rogers rose through the ranks to become vice provost of the university, a position she left in 2001, when she was selected to serve as dean of the Moritz College of Law.

During her tenure, she spearheaded the creation of many innovative programs, including Election Law @ Moritz, the Distinguished Practitioners in Residence program, Mentoring & More @ Moritz and the Law and Leadership Institute, a statewide diversity pipeline focused on increasing law school enrollment from minority and underserved communities.

Professor Rogers was instrumental in establishing a nationally recognized Alternative Dispute Resolution center at Ohio State. She was the first faculty advisor for the Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution, a student journal that is now the official journal of the American Bar Association's Section on Dispute Resolution. She has authored numerous award-winning publications on the subject, including the nation's foremost dispute resolution textbook, and her leadership was recognized as vital to the drafting and passage of the Uniform Mediation Act.

Respected across the nation for her leadership and legal skills, she left her role as dean in 2008, at the governor's request, to serve as Ohio's Attorney General. She has served as president of the Association of American Law Schools, was appointed as one of Ohio's five commissioners on the National Conference of Commissioners of Uniform State Laws, and was appointed by President Bill Clinton to the board of directors of the Legal Services Corporation.

In 2014, she received the prestigious James F. Henry Award from the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution. This lifetime achievement award celebrates her remarkable contributions to the legal field as a teacher, scholar and innovator.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT DRAKE

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations on earning the diploma soon to be in your hands. Commencement is a joyous occasion at Ohio State as years of academic study are celebrated. This is a milestone achievement, one that gives the green light to begin your next chapter. While you anticipate what is ahead, also consider how much you have gained as an Ohio State student.

During your time on campus, you have absorbed a great deal of knowledge, the true currency of today's society. Inside the classroom, through a leadership position or by way of a research endeavor, you have learned more than is easily realized. That is certainly a feeling to cherish! In turn, thank you for embracing the university's values through those various opportunities. It is our students who create the ultimate fabric of Ohio State.

Today is your day, and I encourage you to acknowledge those individuals who helped make it happen. Whether they are sitting in the stands or congratulating you from afar, they have contributed to the success of your academic profile in many ways. So thank loved ones for the brown bag lunches that fueled you and thank teachers for the resources that guided you. Much of what you have accomplished can be traced back to the support of others along the way.

The university exists to develop tomorrow's lead problem solvers. I sincerely hope each of you will go forth and make a difference as an Ohio State graduate. Be curious enough to ask questions and passionate enough to find answers. This is the spirit of a Buckeye for life. Congratulations once again!

Sincerely,

Michael V. Drake, MD
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we write to offer our congratulations to the Class of 2016! It is exhilarating when this many Buckeyes gather in one place, and all who are here today share excitement for what you accomplished at Ohio State and what you will achieve in the future.

Commencement is your day: a celebration of your journey, and the lessons and experiences that accompanied your time on campus. As you look around, you will see that you did not undertake the journey alone. You drew upon an incredible wealth of knowledge, experience and support from your classmates, loved ones and the university that contributed to your ability to earn the diploma you hold in your hands today.

In the coming years, you will make many more exciting transitions — some may take you around the globe and introduce you to new people and ideas. Along the way, you will enjoy the benefits of an alumni network that connects five generations of Buckeyes who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

As of today, you are a member of the alumni association. We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay actively engaged through social media channels, volunteering, alumni clubs and societies and beyond. To learn more about the different membership levels and benefits within the alumni association, please visit osu.edu/alumni/membership.

We are honored to welcome the Class of 2016 as our newest members, and are committed to providing the services you want from your alumni association. Your success is driving Ohio State's motto Education for Citizenship, and we will work to support you throughout your life as you pay forward your time at this university.

Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

Photography

As a courtesy to those persons receiving degrees today, please remain seated in the stands until the graduates have received their diplomas and moved past the stadium gates. Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers are permitted on the field.

A professional photographer will take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is awarded. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate's address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but you are not obligated to do so.

Complimentary Programs

A limited number of programs are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests should be sent to the Office of Commencement and Special Events, 1060 Blankenship Hall, 901 Woody Hayes Drive, Columbus, OH 43210-4016.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother

I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass,

the years will roll, Time and change

will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—

to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
