*Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.

Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.*

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

John E. Pepper

Doctor of Business Administration

John E. Pepper is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Procter & Gamble as well as Chairman of the Board's Executive Committee. He was reelected Chairman of the Board of the Cincinnati-based consumer goods corporation in June of this year, having previously served as P&G's ninth Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer from July 1995 through September 1999, when he retired.

Procter & Gamble currently markets 300 brands to five billion consumers in more than 140 countries with ground operations in 70 countries and with 110,000 employees worldwide.

A native of Pottsville, Pennsylvania, Mr. Pepper is a 1960 graduate of Yale University. After service in the U.S. Navy, Mr. Pepper joined P&G in 1963. He served as general manager of Procter & Gamble Italia from 1974 to 1978 and was elected group vice president in 1980. In 1984, he was elected to the board of directors and, in 1986, was named president of U.S. business. In 1990, he became president of international business. He was named chief executive and board chairman in 1995.

Mr. Pepper is a member of the board of directors of the Xerox Corporation, Motorola Inc., and the Boston Scientific Corporation. He is a fellow of The Yale Corporation, chairman of the United States Advisory Committee for Trade and Policy Negotiations, and has served as chairman of the Ohio Business Roundtable and the Cincinnati United Way Campaign.

Deeply committed to community service, particularly education, Mr. Pepper is a member of the Governor's Education and Business Advisory Group and vice chairman of the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative. He also serves on the boards of Partnerships for a Drug-Free America and the National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy and is co-chair of the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center Development Campaign.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Jules B. LaPidus

Doctor of Humane Letters

Jules LaPidus retired in July as president of the Washington, D.C.-based Council of Graduate Schools, a position he had held since September 1984.

Prior to his service with the council, Dr. LaPidus spent nearly three decades at Ohio State as a faculty member and administrator. After receiving his bachelor's degree in pharmacy from the University of Illinois and master's and doctoral degrees in medicinal chemistry from the University of Wisconsin, he joined The Ohio State University College of Pharmacy faculty in 1958 as an assistant professor of medicinal chemistry. He was named a full professor in 1967. During his tenure, he gained a national reputation for his research and teaching on stereochemistry and pharmacology, and the College of Pharmacy became one of the top schools in the nation. He is the author of more than 40 papers in the general areas of medicinal chemistry and pharmacology, and he served on the Pharmacology and Toxicology Training Committee and the Pharmacology-Toxicology Program Committee, both at the National Institute of General Medical Sciences of the National Institutes of Health.

In 1972, Dr. LaPidus was named associate dean for research in Ohio State's Graduate School and, in 1974, became dean of the Graduate School and vice provost for research. As dean, he is credited with being a skilled administrator and raised the research standards for doctoral dissertations university-wide. While at Ohio State, Dr. LaPidus served on the boards of the university's Development Fund and Research Foundation and chaired the University Press' editorial board.

As president of the Council of Graduate Schools, Dr. LaPidus visited numerous graduate schools across the nation, becoming a strong advocate for new directions in graduate education. He has chaired or served on many committees in national associations, including the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, the American Council on Education, the Association of American Universities, the Graduate Record Examinations Board, the African-American Institute, and the Policy Council of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). He has also served on advisory committees at the National Institutes of Health, the National Science Foundation, the National Academy of Science, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He is sought after as a speaker on graduate education at conferences and universities both in this country and abroad.

Ohio State proudly welcomes back this distinguished scientist, administrator, and champion of higher education.

R.S. Paroda

Doctor of Science

Renowned agricultural research scientist, R.S. Paroda is currently secretary of the Department of Agricultural Research and Education for the government of India and director general of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR).

As head of ICAR, Dr. Paroda oversees 29 state agricultural universities, 35 national research centers, and 22,000 scientists. Over the past three decades, ICAR's research and extension activities have increased India's food grain production to 200 million tons.

Dr. Paroda received his bachelor of science degree in agriculture in 1962 from the University of Rajasthan in Jaipur, India, his master's degree in plant breeding and genetics from the University of Udaipur, and his doctorate in genetics from the Indian Agricultural Research Institute in New Delhi. He did postdoctoral study at the University of Wales on a Commonwealth Scholarship.

During his distinguished career, Dr. Paroda has served in numerous leadership positions in agricultural research and development in India. As deputy director general of ICAR from 1987 to 1992, he revamped the crop science programs to focus on seed production and hybrid research, revolutionizing the country's food grain production. He served as director of the National Bureau of Plant Genetic Resources from 1985 to 1987 and played the leading role in building one of the world's three largest and most modern National Gene Banks with support from USAID. From 1979 to 1985, he served as professor and head of the Department of Plant Breeding at the prestigious Haryana Agricultural University in Hisar. Prior to that, he was head of the Division of Plant Studies at Jodhpur's Central Arid Zone Research Institute.

Dr. Paroda has made many valuable contributions toward understanding the genetic architecture and related attributes of cereal grains and forage crops. His research has led to the release of 14 new high-yielding varieties for which he has received international recognition. He has published more than 200 research papers in scholarly journals, and he is an elected fellow in the majority of India's scientific academies.

He has been the president of India's National Academy of Agricultural Sciences since 1996 and was elected general president of the Indian Science Congress Association for 2000-01. In addition, he helped to establish and promote the Asia-Pacific Association of Agricultural Research Institutions, an important global forum for agricultural science exchanges.

Ohio State proudly adds its own honor to those already held by this eminent international scientist and combatant in the war against hunger.

Donna Maria Alvarado

Distinguished Service Award

Donna Alvarado is the founder and managing director of Aguila International, a consulting firm that provides services to businesses seeking to expand their operations into other countries, especially Mexico.

The recipient of a 1969 bachelor of arts degree in Spanish and a 1970 master's degree in romance languages and literatures from Ohio State, she has remained involved with the university. As a student, Ms. Alvarado was active in Alpha Lambda Delta national honor society and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

As an alumna, Ms. Alvarado has served on the Washington Committee of The Ohio State University Campaign and the national board of the university's Critical Difference for Women program. She has served a five-year term on the Alumni Association board of directors, where she was vice chair/treasurer and chair of the strategic planning committee. She was the speaker at the Office of Minority Affairs' 16th Annual Graduate and Professional Schools Visitation Days in 1986, and, in 1990, she spoke for Alpha Psi Lambda at the Hispanic Leadership Banquet. As a result of her commitment to her alma mater, Ms. Alvarado has received the Distinguished Alumna Award of the Office of Minority Affairs, the 300th Commencement Award, and the College of Humanities' Alumni Award of Distinction and Alumni Society Distinguished Alumni Award.

Ms. Alvarado has had a distinguished service-oriented career in a variety of organizations and federal agencies. From 1989 to 1994, she served as president and CEO of Quest International, a not-for-profit organization that provides training and curriculum products to school systems in 30 countries. Prior to that, she was director of ACTION, the federal domestic volunteer agency. Appointed by President Reagan, she was the chief national spokesperson for volunteerism, directing the activities of nearly 500,000 American volunteers and managing a $170 million budget.

In addition, she has held numerous state and federal regulatory, legislative, and judicial posts. She is currently vice chair of the Ohio Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs, chair of the Case Management Subcommittee of the Ohio Courts Futures Commission, a member of the State of Ohio Workforce Investment Board, and chair of the Central Ohio Technical College in Newark.

Ohio State proudly honors its dedicated alumna for her many contributions to her alma mater, her community, and her country.

Robert Allan Barnes

Distinguished Service Award

Robert Barnes is chairman of the board of United Carriers Corporation, president emeritus of Central Ohio Technical College, and former dean of The Ohio State University at Newark.

A native of Cleveland, he graduated from Miami University, studied at the Juilliard School of Music, and received his master's degree from Columbia University. During the 1950s, Dr. Barnes served as chair of the music department at North Carolina State University and conductor of the Raleigh Symphony Orchestra.

After receiving a Ph.D. in music education from Ohio State in 1963, Dr. Barnes joined the faculty of Ohio State's School of Music, a position he held for 19 years. During his Ohio State tenure, he served three years as assistant to President Novice Fawcett before being named dean of Ohio State's Newark campus. During his 14 years as dean, he oversaw the founding of a permanent campus, the design and construction of the initial buildings, the establishment of a permanent library, and the selection of a full-time faculty.

In 1972, he became the founding president of Central Ohio Technical College, a two-year technical school that shares the campus grounds, staff, and buildings with Ohio State's Newark campus. He also worked with the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, chairing several teams examining colleges and universities for accreditation. Upon his retirement from higher education in 1979, Dr. Barnes was named chairman of the board of United Carriers Corporation, the Newark-based parent company of four motor carriers serving 48 states.

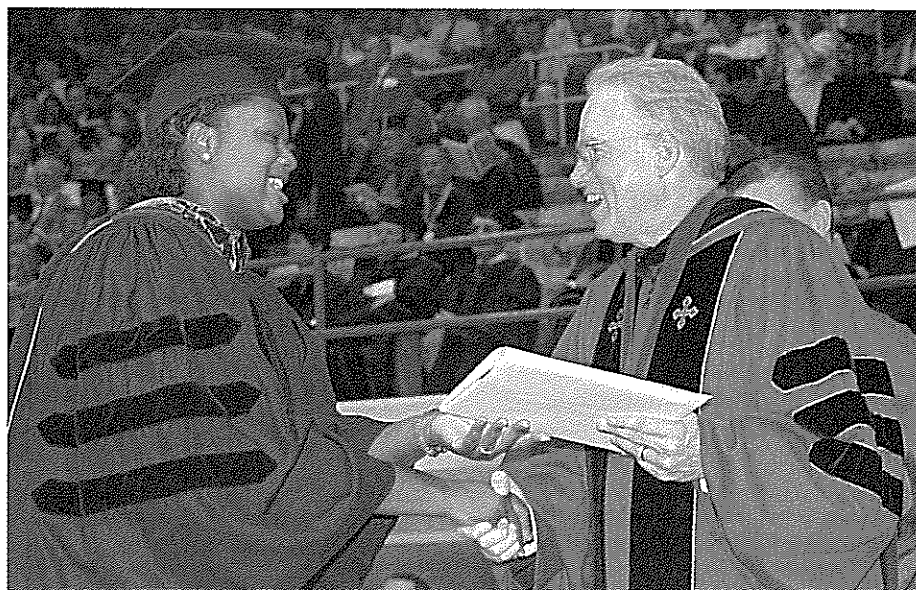

He has continued his service to the Newark campus as a trustee, donor, and volunteer. In 1989, he established the Robert A. Barnes Award for Exemplary Teaching, given annually to an outstanding faculty member at the Newark campus. In 1999, he served as general chair of the Newark campus' Our Campus for Tomorrow fund-raising campaign, which raised $10 million for the construction of the Center for Emerging Technologies.

Long active in professional and civic organizations, Dr. Barnes is president of the Ohio Trucking Association and past president of the Newark and Licking County Chamber of Commerce. He has served on the boards of United Way, Junior Achievement, the Private Industry Council, and YMCA.

Ohio State gratefully recognizes the four decades of firm friendship extended by this valued alumnus, faculty member, and administrator.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT KIRWAN

Serving as the twelfth president of The Ohio State University is a tremendous honor which I shall cherish always. I am enormously proud to be part of the university family—particularly on this graduation day. Today's ceremony has been described as a cross between a pep rally, a family reunion, and an academic ceremony. It is all of that—and more.

Commencement is the single greatest event in the life of a university president—a day that reminds all of us that ours is a remarkable institution with a proud tradition and a very bright future. For you, the graduates, it is a recognition of your hard work and a celebration of your notable achievements.

Now you are about to embark on another phase of your life. I suspect you face that prospect with excitement and some trepidation. I remember how I felt as a senior. I was ready to move on but reluctant to leave behind friends and mentors, familiar places, and comfortable surroundings.

Let me assure you that no matter where your opportunities take you, there will be no forgetting the place and process that has forged your life and career. Ohio State has made a difference in your life. And now, armed with an Ohio State education, you will make a difference in the lives of others.

As newly-minted alumni, you join a family of more than 500,000 Ohio State graduates throughout the world. Based on the quality of your education and the scope of your achievements, I have no doubt that you will be successful.

You have my hearty congratulations and very best regards as you take on the new challenges that will come with the next phase of your life.

W. E. Kirwan

William E. Kirwan
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed, and another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

Cordially,

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, with honors in the liberal arts, and with honors in pharmacy.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

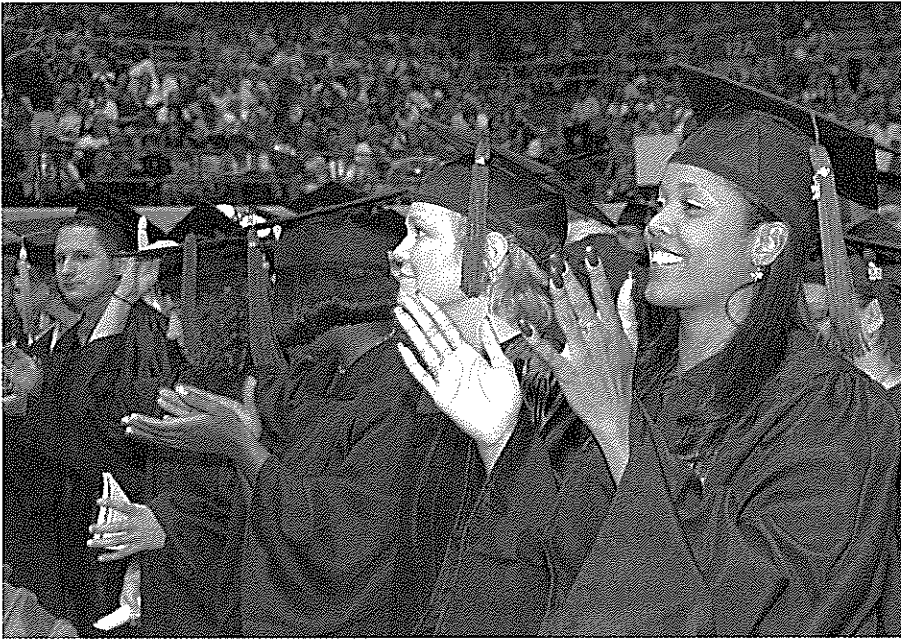

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.
