Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio

Graduates and guests led by
John Robin Rice
Assistant Professor
School of Music

Oh! come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Recipient of Honors

Roald Hoffmann

Doctor of Science

As a researcher, teacher, and poet, Dr. Roald Hoffmann has made major contributions to the worlds of science and letters.

Born in Poland, Dr. Hoffmann survived the Nazi occupation and moved to the United States with his mother and stepfather in 1949. He became a naturalized citizen in 1955 and in that same year entered Columbia University as a Pulitzer Free Scholar, graduating in 1958 with a B.A. in chemistry summa cum laude.

His interest in chemistry was galvanized during his summer breaks from college when he worked at the National Bureau of Standards studying the thermochemistry of cement compounds. He received his master's degree in physics in 1960 and a doctorate in chemical physics in 1962 from Harvard University.

Dr. Hoffmann was honored with the 1981 Nobel Prize in chemistry, shared with Kenichi Fukui. In addition, he has received the 1990 Priestly Medal of the American Chemical Society—its highest honor. The society has also awarded him the first Arthur C. Cope Award in Organic Chemistry jointly with R.B. Woodward in 1973; and the ACS Award in Inorganic Chemistry in 1983. He is the first person to receive ACS awards in two different subfields of chemistry—organic and inorganic.

In 1965, he joined the faculty at Cornell University where he is the John A. Newman Professor of Physical Science. He teaches primarily undergraduates and has taught first-year general chemistry almost every year since 1966. He also teaches chemistry courses for nonscientists and graduate courses in bonding theory and quantum mechanics.

He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the National Academy of Science, and the American Philosophical Society. Committed to making science accessible to the public, Dr. Hoffmann is a columnist for American Scientist. Two collections of his poetry have been published by the University of Central Florida Press: The Metamict (1987) and Gaps and Verges (1990). Chemistry Imagined, a collection of essays, was published this year by the Smithsonian Institution Press. He is also the narrator for the PBS series The World of Chemistry.

Ohio State is proud to recognize this eminent researcher and exemplary teacher for his distinguished contributions to multiple disciplines.

The Academy of Teaching

The Academy of Teaching represents excellence in teaching and reflects Ohio State's commitment to quality education. Membership in the Academy of Teaching is a great honor, reserved for those recipients of the Alumni Award for Distinguished Teaching who are active faculty at the university. Its nearly 100 members are charged with promoting, enhancing, and recognizing good teaching. Their projects include mentoring young faculty members, helping prepare graduate students for the teaching ranks, serving as consultants and reviewers for departments, and advising the president and the chief academic officers on important issues relating to teaching.

Congratulations and Welcome to the Alumni Association

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you've become an alumnus. For you, one era has passed, another is about to begin.

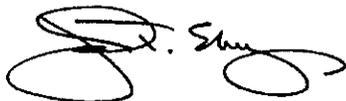

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the University in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the University to improve itself and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the University's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and those others who helped you arrive here today go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

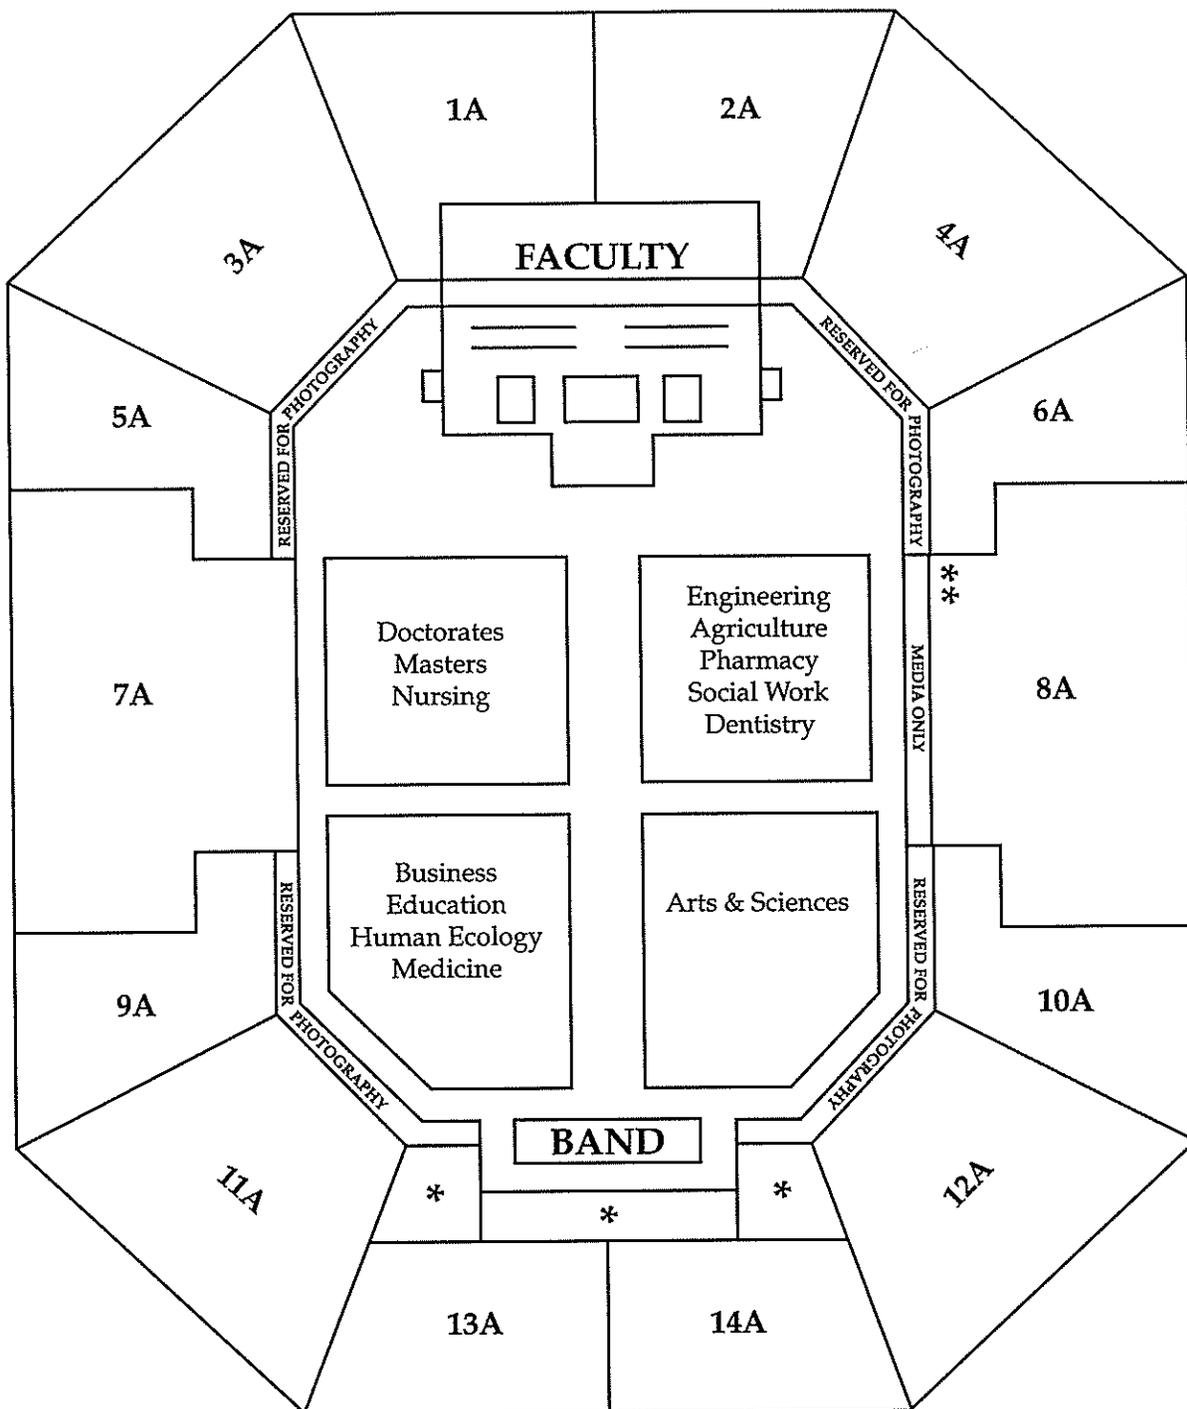

Cordially,

John T. Eby

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

The Academic Costume

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In the light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the University.

The Gown

Bachelor. Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master. Black, long or short sleeves with a re-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor. Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

The Hood

Bachelor. Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master. Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor. Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Sea-foam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School	Black
Colleges of the Arts and Sciences
College of the Arts (B.A., B.S.I.D.)	White
(Others)	Brown
School of Music (B.A.)	White
(Others)	Pink
College of Biological Sciences	White
College of Humanities	White
College of Mathematical and Physical Sciences	White

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and University administrative officers.
